DEDICATION

The Seniors of 1950 are proud and happy to dedicate their Annual this year to one of our first grade teachers, Miss Mary Burgin. She has been with us many years and is known to her pupils as "Miss Mary."

Miss Mary first attended college at Asheville College, formerly known as Normal and Collegiate Institute at Asheville, North Carolina. She went to summer school at a Woman's college in Greensboro, North Carolina.

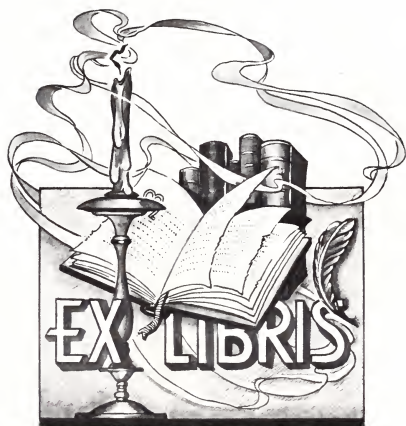

She taught two years at Westminster School a Presbyterian Preparatory School in Rutherfordton County. The rest of her teaching has been in the schools of McDowell County and the major part in Old Fort School.

She gave most of us Seniors our start in the first grade and is still on the job, giving her best to other young folks. She still loves her profession and is just as interested in it as she was the day she started, years ago.

Now as we go out into the unknown, we cannot forget her services to our beloved school. We hope we can at least make a start on the road she has traveled for so long. The road where we forget selfishness, greed and jealousy; the road where we have only love in our hearts and a burning desire to serve others and help them start life in the right direction, as has Miss Mary. Miss Mary will always have our deepest respect and undying gratitude for being such a grand person.

CLASS HISTORY

We started to school in 1938 and were under the supervision of Miss Mary Burgin, Miss Beulah Nichols and Miss Della Williams. Our most interesting activity was the building of our little house.

In the second grade we had as our directors Miss Stacey, Miss Hemphill and Miss Biddix. The third year was the year we had our multiplication table. This year was a very busy one for us. Our teachers were Miss Laura Hicks and Miss Hensdale. In the fourth grade we prepared boxes to send to the boys at Moore General Hospital. Mrs. Tolliver and Miss Hartley were very proud of us.

In the fifth grade we had as our supervisors Miss Icard and Mrs. Bradley. Although we had to work hard, we had fun. In the sixth grade we had our first experience with the Student Council. Although we didn't like it much, Mrs. Kanipe and Miss Hemphill tried to help us along our way.

Then came the time when we were in the seventh grade. That year we had more to do with the Student Council. The president was Elsie Johnson. Our supervisors were Miss Long and Mrs. Lonon.

Miss MacCracken was our director in the eighth grade. We had fun, especially when Barbara Hogan and she had a little argument. Barbara always was the brave one. We were looking forward to being freshmen the coming year.

Our Freshman year was a busy one. We had as our director, Mr. Moore. Our officers were: President, Lucille Grindstaff; Vice-President, Patsy Grimes; Secretary-Treasurer, Dan Early. This year Eddie and Ernie Lackey decided they would join us. We were still striving to reach our goal.

Mr. Woodward tried very hard to help us reach this goal in our Sophomore year. A few of our classmates thought they knew enough about school, so they decided to try married life. Among these were: Betty Vess, Patsy Grimes and Barbara Hogan.

Then we became the distinguished Juniors of Old Fort High School. Mrs. Painter was our teacher. At the latter part of the year the Juniors gave a play entitled "Don't Darken My Door" which was a great success. This year, we entertained the Seniors at a Banquet with the help of Mrs. Painter. It was a very nice banquet.

Most of the Juniors took part in the Graduation Exercise. The Marshalls were: Chief, Lucille Grindstaff, Elsie Johnson, Clara Kelly, Doris Davis, Doris Silver and Mabel Tabor. Class officers were: President, Edward Carver; Vice-President, Jack Hicks; Secretary-Treasurer, Carolyn Byrd.

At last the year has come for which we have strived and worked so long. We are now the dignified Seniors of Old Fort High School. Our director for this final year is Mr. Woodward and we can never forget this year because it has been a very busy and exciting one. Our Class officers this year are: President, Edward Carver; Vice-President, Carolyn Byrd; Secretary-Treasurer, Dan Early. In October we received our rings and were proud of them.

We have had many outings this year and expect to have many more in the spring. On one of our trips we went to Mt. Mitchell. This was a very exciting trip. We expect to give a Senior play in the spring.

CLASS PROPHECY

New York, N. Y.
June 2, 1953

Dear Devue,

My vacation, which I spent at home, has just ended and I thought you might like to know what our old classmates are doing. Barbara Allison is now in the WAVES. She is a First Lieutenant. I guess you remember her telling us that she was going to join, but we didn't think much about it.

You know, we always thought Millie Banks would be a Mayoress, but she surprised us and is now working for The Bell Telephone Company. I don't think you will be shocked to hear this, but Elizabeth Grindstaff is happily married and has a family of two. We always did think she would be the first of our class to marry. I also heard that Doris Silver was a school teacher in Baltimore, Maryland. Her students just don't know how lucky they are.

If you ever happen to go to Philadelphia, go to see Doris Davis. She is doing well in her Beauty Shop there. Have you not seen Edward Carver's name in the papers recently? You know, he used to play Basketball, but he is now playing for the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Dan Early is singing with Vaughn Monroe's band. Vaughn just stepped out of his career as a singer when he heard Dan's voice. Maybe you have heard about Juanita White. She is a Stewardess on the Pan American Airlines. You might see her on one of your trips.

I hear that Eddie Lackey is a famous artist here in New York. I never can get near any of his paintings when I visit the museum. There are so many people crowded around his paintings. Sam Porter is going to North Carolina State College studying to be an Electrical Engineer. I know he will be a success.

You remember Herbert Jenkins, don't you? He used to drive a bus, but he is driving for Johnson Motor Lines now. Lucille Grindstaff was always the brains of our class. She is a private secretary at Clear-Water Finishing Co.

Bobby Lytle is part owner of a large cattle farm in the West. He has gone far since I last saw him. Let me tell you about William Bradley. He is driving for the Queen City Coach Company. He has the route from Asheville to Salisbury, North Carolina.

Clifford Bartlett never had very much to say to anybody. He is working for the Silver Fleet Transfer Company, so when he goes on long trips he isn't bothered with so many people. I also heard that J. L. Lowery owns a big farm out in the country. Wonder how he takes care of it all by himself?

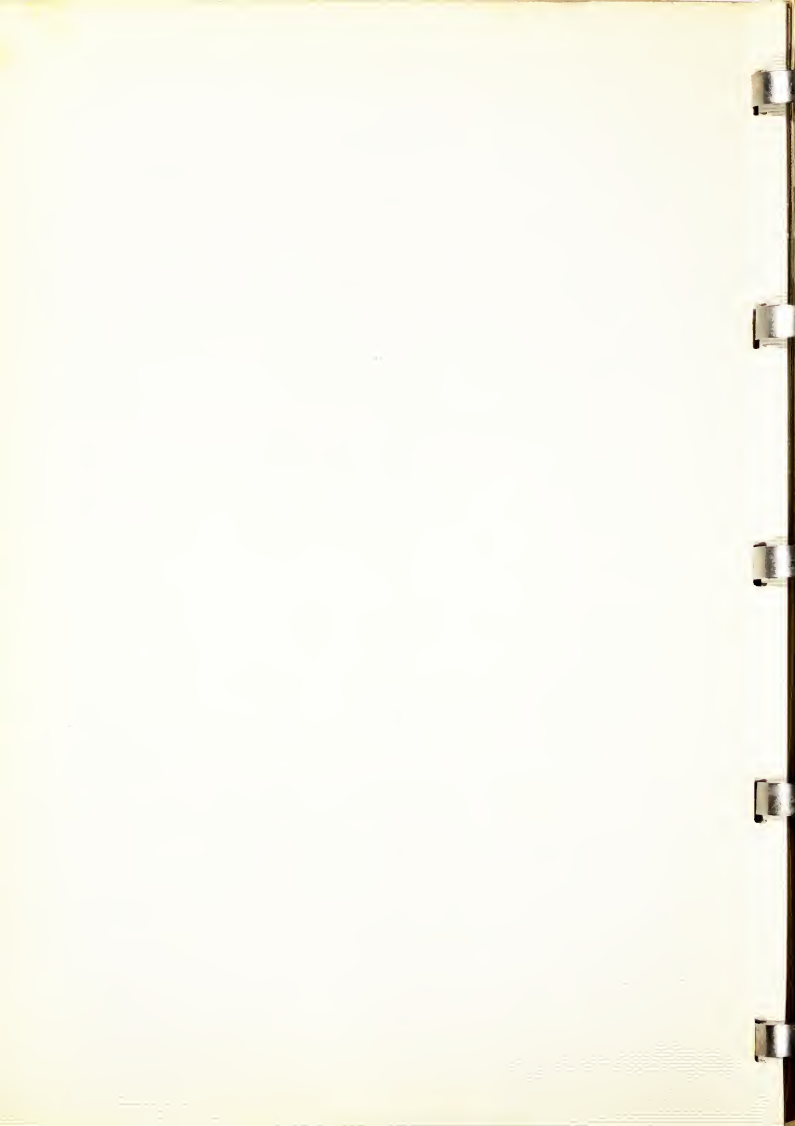

Dorothy Cooke is teaching Latin at Boyden High School in Salisbury, North Carolina. She always was good on that subject. They say that Mabel Tabor is going to be a nurse. She has chosen the profession best suited her.

Clara Kelly is a typist in a big Business Firm in Washington, D. C. She is making good, I know. Have you heard about Ruby Lee Coates? She married a lawyer in Asheville, North Carolina and now owns several houses.

Elsie Johnson is now sole owner of the Trading Post. She knew more about it than the Manager, so he turned the whole business over to her. How do you like Puerto Rica? I know being manager of Beacon Manufacturing Company there keeps you busy. I suppose you heard about my success as an Interior Decorator. I have advanced quite rapidly.

Love,

Carolyn

CLASS POEM

Our high school days are at an end
What shall we do tomorrow?
Who can express our emotions now
Is it gladness or is it sorrow?

It will be hard to say farewell
And leave this school behind
A more beloved school than this
I know we'll never find.

For it was here we got our start
And here we were taught to fight
For the things in which we believe
And the things that we know are right.

We are glad to have had the chance
To attend this school of renown
We know that we are better prepared to tackle life on our own.

Now as we leave this school behind
We wish to express our appreciation
For a school that is fighting to make
Our country a better nation.
